

For more than a year I tried to get into this training sessions. often the groups were not recruited and the trainings were postponed. But finally I got in. At this training "How to independently train store employees", I learned for myself a lot of new tricks that I will apply in my work with the team.

I will be very glad to meet Elena at the new trainings.

I hope to see you soon! Best regards, Vladimir Boldyshev.